

Duration: three to four hours per week

BDI After-Sales our service - your success

your benefits:

- Increase in production
- External monitoring of process
- Early detection of possible problems in process
- Competent contact persons for questions from production management or operators
- Increased knowledge through exchange of experience with BDI specialists
- Access to BDI empirical data

our achievements:

- Continuous monitoring of available raw material analyses and Biodiesel qualities
- Regular review and control of batch protocols
- external reference analysis Biodiesel
- Recommendations for additional laboratory analyses
- Optimization of process parameters

our demands:

- Released batch protocols
- Disclosure of current operation data
- Functional laboratory
- Access to PCS, batch protocols and analysis results
- Availability of qualified personnel
- Contact person for duration of training
- Availability of defined raw material quantity (optional)
- Reference analysis of Biodiesel sample (optional)

Please contact us for further information:
+43 316 4009 100 | after.sales@bdi-bioenergy.com